1979 - This year has been designated by the United Nations as the International Year of the Child. This proclamation has received the strong support of the President of the United States, of Governor John Dalton, and of innumerable groups and organizations throughout our country and our state that are concerned about children. It is a special time for each country, each community and every person to examine their involvement with children. It is a time for strengthening family ties and for increasing awareness of our children's needs and of their abilities. We hope every person in the county, regardless of age, will get involved in the activities planned, and in planning the activities, for our children in Appomattox. Watch for the above symbol elsewhere in this issue and in forth-coming issues of the Times-Virginian to keep up with forth-coming activities in the county and state and most important of all - as the symbol suggests - children and adults, reach out to each other. We all have a lot to gain.

The Pastor Speaks

The Bible and Daily Living

By Dr. William L. Trimyer

Lesson For May 27, 1979

Background Scripture: 1 Cor. 9:6-15

And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that you may always have enough of everything and may provide in abundance for every good work. (RSV)

GIVE UNTIL IT HURTS

We Christians have often "missed the boat" when it comes to this matter of giving. We somehow believe that God wants us to give until it hurts. In these days of economic crisis we seem to be hurting enough.

The problem seems to center around an over-emphasis upon GOAL GIVING as opposed to LOVE GIVING. The church often "pushes" people to give towards a goal rather than giving to a cause out of love. The end result is grudge-giving

Paul suggests in our study for this week certain principles of giving. One of Paul's metaphors suggests that giving is like sowing seed, namely, minimal sowing produces minimal harvest. The opposite is equally true; maximum sowing brings about an abundant harvest.

Paul also talks about giving with a sense of joy. Grudge-giving will not produce an abundant harvest. There is an added dimension to this issue of giving, namely, the giving of self. Paul spoke of the Christians in Macedonia who "first gave themselves to the Lord" (11Cor. 8:5)

THE SOURCE OF ALL GIFTS

A second principle of giving has to do with the fact that God enables the Christian to give. God is the original "owner" of all things in the earth both great and small. We are his "trustees" of all the good gifts that come our way from him.

Money is a powerful tool. I say "tool" because if used positively money can become a powerful instrument against poverty, hunger, disease, ignorance, slums, and a host of other problem areas of life which do people in. If used negatively, money can become a "cancer" which eats away the vital fibers which hold society together.

It has been said that "That which a person gives away often becomes their greatest possession." There is a great deal of truth in such thinking. To given and watch our gifts grow and benefit others is one of the greatest joys on earth.

GIVING PRODUCES GRATITUDE

We may never know how far our giving will go towards achieving certain unknown results. Paul's third principle of giving suggests that our gifts will produce a sense of gratitude in others. An old saying states that "It is more blessed to give than to receive." There is much truth in that saying, but it is also a blessing to be the recipient of a gift. I enjoy receiving a gift! And I enjoy letting someone know how much it excites me to be the recipient of their gift.

Gratitude will change your attitude! Remembering to express thanks for a gift from God or from a friend will increase one's capacity to appreciate and enjoy the gift.

The size of our gifts is not the important factor in giving. Sometimes the amount we can give many seem insignifant in comparison to the needs we hope to meet.But God has a way of multiplying our gifts to make them reach out and do more than we ever expected.

Money is what we make it to be. It can bring people together or tear them apart. Money can be a channel to bless or a road to destruction. We can give until it hurts or give until it feels good. The choice is our's to make.

I read a short verse by an unknown auther that seems to sum up the relationship between a person and their money.

Dug from the mountain-side washed from the glen
Servant am I or master of men.
Steal me, I curse you;
Earn me, I bless you;
Grasp me and hoard me, a friend shall possess you;
Live for me, die for me,
Covet me, take me,
Angel or devil, I am what you make me.

R. E. LEE INVITATIONAL CHAMPION TERRY TOWLER, center, front row, is flanked by Charles Crawley, left, winner of second flight and B. S. Gowen, winner of third flight. L. A. Arthur, back row left won fifth flight while Bill Matherly, right captured fourth flight. First flight winner, Wayne Proffitt was not available for picture.

Golf tournament was played at F.R.C.C. last week end.

Towler Captures R. E. LEE GOLF TITLE

Terry Towler, from Arvonia, shot 74 Sunday to go with a first round 76 and won the third annual R. E. Lee Golf Invitational by one stroke over Altavista's Mike Atkinson & R.L. Rigsbee.

Playing in the same foursome with Towler, Atkinson saw his birdie attempt on the eighteenth hole slide by the cup as he made a valiant attempt to force a play-off.

First round leader, R. L. Rigsbee increased his two shot margin over Towler to six shots by making birdie on the first hole while Towler made triple bogie seven, but at the end of nine holes Towler had cut the margin to one. Towler took the lead at twelve with birdie, however Atkinson eagled the par five thirteenth and moved out in front by one stroke. Atkinson bogied fourteen and fifteen losing both holes to Towler's pars and Towler was in front for good.

Altavista's Pete Dalton and last year's winner Jerry Conner both had 72's Sunday to go with an opening 80 for 152 and a tie for fourth in the Championship Flight.

Other winners include, FIRST FLIGHT, Wayne Proffitt (1st), Gary Howard (2nd), Bill Carter (3rd) and Doug Marshall (4th). SECOND FLIGHT, Charles Crawley (1st), Doug Martin (2nd), Ed Ware (3rd) and John Cooper (4th). THIRD FLIGHT B.S. Gowen (1st), Ronnie Ranson (2nd), Jim Buckalew (3rd), and Dick Bass (4th). FOURTH FLIGHT, Bill Matherly (1st), Keith Ferguson (2nd), Don Flippin (3rd) and Robert Yates (4th). FIFTH FLIGHT, L. A. Arthur (1st), Ronnie Lewis (2nd) Bob Spencer (3rd) and Robert Carter (4th).

Closest to the Pin Saturday was Bill Rech while Steve Wilson made the best shot on the par 3 on Sunday. No one claimed the 1979 Ford Fairmont by getting a hole in one during the tournament, however, Bill Enochs accomplished the feat during a practice round on Friday while playing with John Sperry.

THE APPOMATTOX COUNTY DIXIE YOUTH BASEBALL SEASON was kicked off on April 30, 1979 at the Woodman of the World field. The facility had its beginning in 1966,nearly thirteen years ago. Girls from Appomattox going to District Track Meet on May 12th were, back row, left to right, M. Garrett, L. Moore, L. Mitchell, D. Williams, J. Nealley and J. Appomattox Girls Track Team

As summer draws closer, many spring sports are finishing up - one of these is girls track at Appomattox County High School. This year, the Raiderettes faced stiff District competition and ended the season with a 4 - 4 win/loss record. Despite their record, the team benefited a great deal from the competition itself.

In the area of field events, the team rallied behind the consistency and outstanding performances of Lisa White who threw both shot and disc. With a throw of 33' 3" in the shot and 89' 8" in the disc, Lisa earned a berth in the district track meet.

In the long jump, Mattie McCoy and Lori Mitchell proved their abilities with many excellent jumps. Mattie entered the District with a qualifying jump of 15' 9".

In the high jump, Janet Nealley, Debbie Williams and Bev Coleman all broke the school record with a jump of 4' 7". This year's high jumpers all worked hard and seemed to improve as the season went along.

In the running events, many changes were made from last year's line up. The team definately lacked depth in the sprinting area, but there are several girls who should be cited for their performances this year.

It took a while, but finally Margaret Lyons and Lori Mitchell both qualified for the district in the 110-yard hurdles. This was considered a new race this year, so the girls found it a bit more difficult to adjust to the change.

The sprints were not a strong point for the girls this year, but distance running still remained a challenge for other teams, with Mary Franklin competing in both the mile and two mile events.

With Mary graduating this year, the team looks for greater depth in hopes that Jayne Doss and Donna Rhodenizer will lead the way in the distance events.

There was a general toss-up in relay teams this year, but there were finally three teams which went to district and came back with the best times they ever ran this year. They were: 440 Relay Team - Harding, McCoy, Moore, Garrett, time 55.5; 880 Relay Team - McCoy, Lyons, Mitchell, Moore, time 1:55.5; and Mile Relay Team - Johnson, Garrett, Lyons, Mitchell, time 4:47.0.

Next year, losing only 5 seniors, Coach Riggins looks for a better season than in the past. All things considered, after only 3 years of a girls track team program, the girls are not doing so bad at all. One factor that would add to the depth and potential of the Varsity Track Team would be the addition of a junior-high girls track program which would feed into the high school track team. A dream now - soon a reality??
